CAPS AND CAPES

1958 Edition

CHARITY HOSPITAL
SCHOOL OF NURSING

New Orleans,
Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS, . . . to each of us it means something different. For some it has always meant home; for others it has meant the start of a new life, nursing.

To every one it means genteel culture and tradition mingled with exuberant gaiety and charm. Yes, to each something different but to all something very, very special. . . This year, Caps and Capes proudly salutes our city. . .

DEDICATION

It is the privilege of every Senior student to work under your capable guidance as Supervisor of Psychiatry. To, in some way, express our humble appreciation for all you have done for us and our great admiration for you as a person, we gratefully dedicate this, the 1958 edition of "CAPS and CAPES" to you, Sister Juliana.
